THOMAS G. BRUTON
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT

SENT VIA HIS DEPUTY, ALBERTA RONE.

Your Honor:

I apologize for contacting you via email, but the mail at the Chicago MCC is unreliable. I have been housed here for several years and for the duration of the still-pending proceedings before you.

My lawyer, Clarence Butler, has been unable to attend to my case because of his several hospitalizations and a continuing, serious affliction that impedes his energy and his movements.

I am again at a situation---years into my detention of inaction to a speedy disposition of my still- pending trial.

No motions have been filed by Mr. Butler and no discovery received from the Government. Frankly, none of my court-appointed lawyers: Adams, Frankel, Rediger and now Butler ever delivered to me any discovery from the Government. Consequently, I have not had the opportunity to review nor prepare for this distant trial.

I gave my attorneys witness names and specific subpoenas to be served upon several banks. Result? Nothing attempted and nothing accomplished. No motions. No hearings. Nothing.

I am happy to forward and will do so upon request, each of the many letters sent to the defense attorneys. Further, there should be no hesitancy on the part of the Government to send to me, at the MCC, ALL of the discovery in its possession, notwithstanding my lawyers' inactivity. This requires an order by the Court.

I have no intention of pleading guilty and never authorized my lawyer to communicate or distort my intention to prove my innocence at a trial.

I requested your Honor to replace Michael Rediger with Clarence Butler because attorney Butler and I worked well together--once Judge Lee listened to my complaints and allowed me to file motions, memorandums and sentencing memos on my own with attorney Butler either adopting them or filing simultaneous documents.

Mr. Butler is physically unable to proceed. My Motions to Dismiss and for Bond remain in limbo. I believe that the current representation remains insoluble. Thus, setting a trial at this time is unreasonable and a violation of my Fifth and Sixth Amendment rights to a fair trial with adequate representation.

Respectfully,
Albert Rossini
Defendant
